Arthur H.Stockwell Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The 14th Century History of the Cotehele, Edgcumbe and Brendon Families of St Dominick, Cornwall: Including the History of the Brendon Family of St Dominick from 1540 to 1765, Tom Brendon, This book has been written with the expectation that it will be read by many people who are not related to the Cotehele, Edgcumbe or Brendon families, of Cornwall: but who will be interested in reading this fascinating 14th century history, which is mainly about the heiress Hillaria de Cotehele. Can there be another ward-ship such as the ward-ship of Hillaria de Cotehele which was seized by two Royal Princes: by Sir John de Eitham the Earl of Cornwall and fifteen years later by Edward the Black Prince the Duke of Cornwall, then sold three times? The history tells the reader about the deaths of Maud de Brendon and one of her wards - Ralph de Cotehele, brother of Hillaria de Cotehele, in June 1349 when the Black Death entered the Brendon House and the five subsequent Court hearings over a dispute about the ward-ship and marriage of Hillaria de Cotehele. The reader will see that the Court of Edward...
