In the greater freedom of the New South, there is the same chivalrous spirit at work that produced the finest things of the old civilization. The history of reconstruction is the epic story of this dauntless life emerging from the desolations of war to aspire for a still finer and nobler civilization in the future. Readjustment has been so rapid that the march of progress is irregular. The new civilization is lacking in symmetry. Many zones of danger and infection exist. False prophets have appeared. The world outside has disturbed the South by talking overmuch about its danger zones and false prophets. Consequently, a conviction grew that the best intelligence and leadership of the South should study and improve and interpret its social and civic life. Out of this conviction the Southern Sociological Congress was born. Immediately it drew the best minds of the South together. On its absolutely free platform the new social consciousness has found expression. Leaders of State and Church have got their sense of direction. Comrades in the common warfare against social and economic evils have become acquainted. Fires of enthusiasm have been kindled in many hearts. The Churches and other forces have been enlisted for social welfare. The New South has heard the call of duty to relieve social distress. Southern patriots are mobilizing in a large way for a crusade of national health and righteousness, and already they are battling all along the line for social...
