MILITARY POLICY OF THE AMERICAN LEGION (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Military Policy of the American Legion We are convinced that in the preparation of these estimates the economic demands of the country have received the fullest and most careful consideration by the Secretary of War and any material cut will seriously affect an adequate national defense of our country and will tend to bring it below what is recognized as a proper margin of safety. The American Legion unqualifiedly indorses the recommendations upon the commissioned personnel of the United States Army made by Gen. Pershing. It believes that the elimination of a considerable number of the least effective officers of the Regular Establishment will tend to increase the efficiency of the entire Army of the United States. We believe that the commissioned personnel should not be cut below the number recommended by Gen. Pershing, which is the number approved by the Budget Committee, as these officers are required not merely for the units of the Regular Army but for the development of the National Guard, the Organized Reserves, and the system of citizen training. This committee is also directed by its national convention to recommend legislation that will provide that the time for making recommendations for and the awarding of the congressional medal of honor, the distinguished service cross and the distinguished service medal for service in the war, be extended five years after the declaration of peace by the United States and also that the law which allowed men who had previously been recommended for the congressional medal or honor but who failed to receive the distinguished service cross, be changed so that the law shall apply to all persons now in or who...
