PUBLICATIONS DIVISION. The Publications Division has continued to issue the regular publications of the bureau, consisting of the Monthly Weather Review, the Bulletin of the Mount Weather Observatory, the National Weather Bulletin, the Snow and Ice Bulletin, the Marine Meteorological Charts, the Weather Maps, and the forecast cards. It has also supplied the stations with blank forms for their meteorological and other station work, and blank maps and cards for disseminating weather forecasts. On January 1, 1911, most of the printing material, including power and job presses, monotype machines, and type, was transferred to the Government Printing Office, where the actual printing work of the bureau has since been done, with the exception of the daily weather maps, and cards for the local forecasts, and such small supplies as have been needed for immediate use at the central office. Lithographic operations remain unchanged. As a result of this change in the printing work of the bureau the services of 16 employees in...
